247 HIGH SCHOOLS HAVE PLAYERS SELECTED IN 2022 NFL DRAFT

CEDAR GROVE (GA) LEADS ALL HIGH SCHOOLS WITH THREE PLAYERS SELECTED

With the 2022 NFL Draft now concluded, the incoming class of drafted rookies will soon experience its first taste of NFL life.

And while the drafted rookies enter the NFL from a variety of different backgrounds, one thing they generally all have in common is an outstanding experience playing high school football.

A total of 247 high schools contributed to the 262 players selected in the seven rounds of the April 28-30 Draft, the most different schools represented since 2016 (247 schools).

“The Draft allows us to see the exciting transition of young men as they carve a new path in their football career,” said NFL Vice President of Football Development ROMAN OBEN. “The 262 players selected in this year’s draft represented 247 different high schools throughout the country. As we continue to grow our great game more and more players will come from all around the world. Football is a great game that instills character, confidence and resilience for both girls and boys.”

CEDAR GROVE HIGH SCHOOL in Ellenwood, Georgia led the way with three players selected while 13 high schools – ARCHBISHOP MURPHY (Everett, Washington), ARCHER (Lawrenceville, Georgia), CARLSBAD (Carlsbad, California), CHEROKEE (Canton, Georgia), IMG ACADEMY (Bradenton, Florida), KLEIN (Spring, Texas), LONG BEACH POLYTECHNIC (Long Beach, California), MARIST (Atlanta, Georgia), NEVILLE (Monroe, Louisiana), PLANT (Tampa, Florida), RIVERDALE BAPTIST (Upper Marlboro, Maryland), SARALAND (Saraland, Alabama) and SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY LAB (Baton Rouge, Louisiana) – each had two players selected.

“Cedar Grove High school without a doubt had a major impact on the position I am in now,” said Atlanta Falcons third-round pick DEANGELO MALONE, who attended the school alongside Atlanta sixth-round pick JUSTIN SHAFFER and Indianapolis third-round pick JELANI WOODS. “Just always believing in yourself and taking advantage of the opportunity presented in front of you on and off the field. That’s basically the motto I stuck with throughout Cedar Grove and Western Kentucky.”

IMG Academy is the only school to have multiple players drafted in each of the past four years and have produced a first-round selection for the third-consecutive Draft (Evan Neal in 2022, Greg Newsome in 2021 and Cesar Ruiz in 2020).

The breakdown of the 14 high schools that had multiple players drafted by NFL clubs:

Some interesting notes on high schools in the 2022 NFL Draft:

- Thirty-eight states had at least one player drafted.
- For the 16th time in the past 17 seasons, at least one player who attended high school outside of the United States was selected in the NFL Draft [DB Deane Leonard (Calgary, Alberta, Canada)].
- Texas (32) led all states and high schools from Texas have produced at least 30 drafted players in each of the past three years (33 in 2021 and 33 in 2020).
- Over the past five NFL Drafts (2018-22), schools from Texas (152 total), Florida (150) and California (112) have had the most players selected.
- California led all states with five first-round selections, followed by Georgia (four) and Texas (four).
