Los Angeles Rams QB JARED GOFF is the winner of COURTYARD UNSTOPPABLE PERFORMANCE OF THE YEAR AWARD. The award was announced tonight at NFL HONORS – a two-hour primetime awards show that will air nationally tonight at 9 PM ET/PT on CBS.

The Courtyard Unstoppable Performance of the Year Award is given to the player who demonstrates the best performance in a game during the regular season. Each week during the regular season, Courtyard awards an “Unstoppable Performer” award to a deserving player, and NFL Media analysts selected Goff’s performance in Week 4 at home against the Minnesota Vikings as the pinnacle of “Unstoppable Performance” this season. The Super Bowl quarterback shattered the Thursday Night Football record throwing for 465 yards and 5 touchdowns.

On the eve of Super Bowl LIII, featuring the New England Patriots against the Los Angeles Rams, the NFL and THE ASSOCIATED PRESS announced their annual accolades in an awards show recognizing the best players, performances and plays from the 2018 season.

Emmy® Award-winning personality, producer and talk show host STEVE HARVEY hosted the show, and many of the winners were on-hand to accept their awards at the Fox Theater in Atlanta.

The newest PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME class was announced and introduced during the show with the Class of 2019 appearing on stage at the Fox Theater in Atlanta.

The prestigious Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award presented by Nationwide, which recognizes a player’s off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence, and the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award, as voted by his peers, were among the awards handed out.

Seven of the awards were from the AP. These awards are voted on at the end of the regular NFL season by a nationwide media panel of 50 people who regularly cover the league. The ballots are tabulated solely by the AP.
